

ELIGIBLE DEPENDENTS AND REQUIRED DEPENDENT DOCUMENTATION

Eligible Dependents	Required Documentation
Spouse Your legal spouse, including a same-gender spouse or your common law spouse if you live in a state that recognizes common law marriage (Colorado, District of Columbia, Iowa, Kansas, Montana, Oklahoma, Rhode Island, South Carolina, Texas, and Utah). See below for states with limited recognition of common law marriage*.	Marriage certificate OR in the absence of a marriage certificate, a current federal tax return showing joint filing status will be accepted
Child(ren) Married or unmarried child(ren) up to age 26, or if disabled, any age with proof of disability	Please provide document listed below OR in the absence of the listed document, a current federal tax return showing the child(ren) as a dependent will be accepted
– Natural child(ren)	A copy of the child's birth certificate showing the employee as a parent
– Stepchild(ren)	A copy of the child's birth certificate showing the name of the natural parent AND proof that the natural parent and employee are married, as described under Spouse above
– Adopted child(ren)	Legal documents stating adoption
– Foster child(ren)	Legal documents stating custody
– Child(ren) of common law spouse	A copy of the child's birth certificate showing the name of the natural parent AND proof that the natural parent and employee are married, as described under Spouse above
– Child(ren) for whom you have legal guardianship	Legal documents stating custody

Dependent documentation is required during your enrollment period.

*States with limited recognition of common law marriage if created prior to the date indicated below:

- Alabama (January 1, 2017)
- Georgia (January 1, 1997)
- Idaho (January 1, 1996)
- Ohio (October 10, 1991)
- Pennsylvania (January 1, 2005)